[D] A winter's day
In a [G] deep and dark De-[D]cember
[Em] I [A] am a-[G]lo-[D]one,
[Em] Gazing from my [A] window [Em] to the streets be-[A]low
On a [Em] freshly fallen [G] silent shroud of [A] snow.
I am a [D] rock, I am an [A] is-[D]land. [D] [Bm]

I've built [D] walls,
a [G] fortress deep and [D] mighty,
That [Em] none [A] may [G] pene-[D]trate.
I [Em] have no need of [A] friendship;
[Em] friendship causes [A] pain.
It's [Em] laughter and it's [G] loving I dis-[A]dain.
I am a [D] rock, I am an [A] is-[D]land. [D] [Bm]

Don't talk of [D] love,
I've [G] heard the words be-[D]fore;
It's [Em] slee-[A]ping in my [G] mem-[D]ory.
And I [Em] won't disturb the [A] slumber
of [Em] feelings that have [A] died.
If I [Em] never loved I [G] never would have [A] cried.
I am [D] a rock, I am an [A] is-[D]land. [D] [Bm]

I have my [D] books
And my [G] poetry to pro-[D]tect me;
I am [Em] shiel-[A]ded in my [G] ar-[D]mour,
[Em] Hiding in my [A] room, [Em] safe within my [A] womb.
I [Em] touch no one and [G] no one touches [A] me.
I am a [D] rock, I am an [A] is-[D]land.

And a [G] rock [F#m] feels no [D] pain;
And an [G] island [F#m] never [D] cries.
